CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE K.S.JHAVERI

Date of decision: 27/08/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1.0. The petitioner by way of this petition has challenged the judgment and award of the Labour Court

dated 11th April, 2001 in Reference [L.C.J.] No. 134 of 1999 whereby the Labour Court has directed the petitioner to reinstate the respondent-workman on his original post with continuity of service with effect from 23rd February, 1999 and also awarded 50% backwages.

2.0. The short facts as they emerge from the record of the petition are that the respondent-workman was engaged as daily wager on the post of Fireguard from 1st February, 1991. It is the case of the respondent-workman that he had worked continuously for the period from 1st February, 1991 to 11th October, 1992. It is the say of the respondent-workman that on 30th October, 1992, he was orally terminated from the service without any notice pay and without following the due procedure. It is further the say of the respondent-workman that no seniority list is maintained and juniors to him are retained in service by the petitioner.

2.1. In view of that the respondent-workman raised industrial dispute, which was ultimately, referred to the Labour Court for adjudication being Reference [L.C.J.] No. 134/1999, whereby the Labour Court had directed the petitioner to reinstate the respondent-workman on his original post with continuity of service with effect from 23rd February, 1999 alongwith 50% backwages. Hence, this petition.

3.0. Heard Ms. Sangeeta Vishen learned advocate appearing for the petitioner and Mr. Dave learned advocate for the respondent-workman.

3.1. It is contended on behalf of the petitioner that though before the Labour Court it has been specifically contended that every department of the Government is not an "Industry" and they are not governed under the Industrial Disputes Act, the Labour Court has not considered the said aspects. It is further contended that in view of the decision of the Full Bench in the case of Gujarat Forest Producers, Gatherers & Forest Workers Union v. State of Gujarat reported in 2004 (2) G.L.H. 302, in para 29, it has been held as under :-

"29. The inquiry into the nature of the work undertaken by the department in a particular venture, the type of agency through which the work is done, the duties of the employees and matters connected therewith, would all be the questions of fact. It is on the basis of the factual data relating to the undertaking and its work that the question whether such entity is industry or not, can be decided. The question of industry on the basis of the facts established would be a question of law. It will thus be seen that the point as to the jurisdiction of the industrial forum is not a pure question of law, but a mixed question of law and facts. As held by the Supreme Court in Bengal Nagpur Cotton Mills Ltd. v. J. Bastian reported in AIR 1960 S.C. 1110 where there is an industrial dispute, it is generally necessary that points of such importance should be raised before the original Industrial Court."

3.2. Looking to the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case and in view of the aforesaid decision, I find force in the submission of the learned advocate for the petitioner. Under the circumstances, for deciding the issue with regard to triple test as laid down in the aforesaid decision, the Labour Court is the competent forum and it would be appropriate to remand the matter to the Labour Court to decide the issue afresh after taking into consideration the aforesaid aspects.

4.0 In view of the above, the petition is partly allowed. The award of the Labour Court dated 11th April, 2001 in Reference [L.C.J.] No. 134 of 1999 is required to be quashed and set aside.

4.1. Therefore, in the interest of justice, the following order is passed.

4.2. The award of the Labour Court dated 11th April, 2001 in Reference [L.C.J.] No. 134 of 1999 is quashed and set aside. The matter is remanded to the Labour Court for fresh decision. The Labour Court shall decide the issue afresh keeping in mind the ratio laid down by the Full Bench in the case of Gujarat Forest Producers, Gatherers & Forest Workers Union v. State of Gujarat (supra) on or before 31st December, 2004. It is however, made clear that if the respondent-workman is not reinstated in service, the petitioner shall pay last drawn wages as per the provisions of Section 17-B of the Industrial Disputes Act, till the Reference is decided by the Labour Court and arrears for the period from 11th April, 2001 till 31st August, 2004 shall be paid within a period of one month. It is also made clear that the petitioner shall regularly pay last drawn wages on 10th of every month to the respondent-workman.
